About the Kamaʻaina of the Year Award
Historic Hawai‘i Foundation (HHF) annually honors individuals or organizations that have contributed to preserving Hawaii’s rich history. The Kamaʻaina of the Year™ event furthers HHF’s mission to preserve and encourage the preservation of historic buildings, objects, sites, and communities. The Kamaʻaina of the Year benefit is HHF’s annual fundraising event and accounts for a substantial portion of its annual operating budget.

The 27th annual Kamaʻaina of the Year event is scheduled for Saturday, October 11, 2014, at 6 p.m. at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The event includes a cocktail hour, dinner, tribute to the honoree and musical entertainment. It is typically attended by 500-550 people.

About the Honorees
Steven, Carol and the Ai family are being recognized in celebration of the rich history of the family-owned, 115-year-old kamaʻaina company that is an important and integral part of the singular culture of the Hawaiian Islands. City Mill has contributed towards the diversification of the local economy and perpetuates Hawai‘i’s values through its corporate philosophy. The Ai siblings exhibit a deep commitment to community in continuing the legacy started by their grandfather. The Kamaʻaina of the Year event will celebrate ‘ohana, building community, and cultural preservation through community involvement.

About the Event

What is Historic Hawai‘i Foundation?
A statewide 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, Historic Hawai‘i Foundation encourages the preservation of historic buildings, sites and communities relating to the history of Hawai‘i. Founded in 1974 by concerned citizens who saw the need to protect the Islands’ irreplaceable historic and cultural legacy from destruction, Historic Hawai‘i Foundation has become the driving force behind preservation in the state through its core programs of developing a community ethic, supporting smart legislation, and providing direct assistance to make preservation accessible. Through strong partnerships with public, private and non-profit organizations, Historic Hawai‘i Foundation helps to unleash critical local energy. Together, we protect the essential character of Hawai‘i.
