The full day seminars will help the public identify opportunities and rights to participate in historic preservation regulatory processes and share other means and tools for effective advocacy to save and preserve historic properties and cultural sites.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Community members and professionals who care about preserving the built and cultural sites that tell the stories of Hawai'i's history and wish to advocate on their behalf.

ATTENDEES WILL LEARN:

- ▶ Definitions and the purpose of historic preservation.
- ▶ Definitions and criteria used to identify historic properties.
- ▶ Which major Federal, State and Local laws and ordinances address historic preservation.
- ▶ Opportunities, rights and responsibilities for public participation in the preservation processes.
- ▶ Additional methods, activities and practices to achieve preservation outcomes.

Contact Historic Hawai'i Foundation for more information at (808) 523-2900 or Member@HistoricHawaii.org

The workshops are provided in cooperation with the National Park Service.
