

DEMOCRACY BY DESIGN The Hawai'i

Public Symposium
Exploring the History, Design,
Use and Future
of the Capitol

For more information

(808) 523-2900

The Symposium will include presentations and discussion on the history of the site and how it was selected for the Capitol, an overview of the building and landscape features and characteristics, and the role it has played in urban planning and the development of the civic center. Historians will also discuss other sites that have been government and civic centers in the Hawaiian Islands from pre-Statehood eras, and how to support civic engagement and democracy.

Open to the public and all with an interest in exploring the role of design in fostering open government and democratic engagement. Registration is required.
