

Community Resilience Campaign

Fall 2020

Now more than ever, places of history and heritage are an important source of identity and belonging, fostering healthy, sustainable communities. Your support will be used towards:

- Educational workshops, seminars and presentations;
- Advocacy through legislative measures and consultation;
- Direct assistance to property owners and grants to support stewardship;
- Internships to engage younger generations in our mission.

Mahalo for your help to preserve resilience in Hawai'i's communities.
